Solitaire for Complete Beginners Dec 31 2019 Solitaire or Klondike Solitaire, 1-Card Draw, has been played for the last couple of centuries with playing cards (just for a little historical perspective). This particular game is so popular that it's often just called Solitaire. After the seven columns of the array are laid out, make all the moves or plays available among the columns and to the Ace piles (also called the foundations or Ace stacks). Then, holding the rest of the cards, called the hand (or stock), face down, make the first pass through them; take one from the top and turn it over for play. If it can't be put either on one of the Ace piles, or on one of the seven columns, put it face up on the waste pile (also called the talon). Continue to the next card in the hand, and play it if you can, or place it on the waste pile face up. Also make other moves as they become available among the seven columns. After going through the whole hand in this manner, turn the waste pile over; it then becomes the hand again. Continue this cycle of making passes through the hand, and playing cards to either the columns or the Ace piles, until no more moves can be made. The game is won if all the cards get moved up to their Ace piles. Get your copy today by scrolling up and clicking Buy Now to get your copy today

Beaches for the Brave Nov 09 2020 Great for travel or quick sessions, Beaches for the Brave is a very light dice placement/allocation solitaire game which loosely represents the beach landings in Normandy and the Pacific Islands by Allied forces during World War Two. Each landing is designed to be small-scale and represents perhaps one or two boats landing on specific sections of the beaches. The various landings represented try to reflect some of the actual situations and events as they happened, but this is meant to be an accessible game which is quick and easy to play and so it is not a complex simulation. Players will still be challenged by the conditions and the enemy, so expect a tough time out there! There are 12 beaches in the game, including Utah, Gold, Juno, Omaha, Sword, Pointe du Hoc, Iwo Jima and Tarawa. You will need to add six or seven standard dice, and either a pencil and eraser or some basic tokens (a dozen or so will be enough). Complexity: 1/5 Time per game: 10 minutes Players: 1
