Ohio Confederate Connection Feb 11 2021 In "Ohio Confederate Connection, " Curtis Early, descendent of Lt. General Jubal A. Early of the Confederate States of America, and his wife, Gloria, present facts about the Civil War that may not be widely known. Gloria and

Curtis Early have been doing Civil War re-enactments for the past twenty years, in which Curtis portrays General Early and Gloria portrays a southern belle. They give talks at school, libraries, Civil War round tables, encampments, and other events on the significance of the Civil War. Additionally, they travel to many states to do the re-enactments, and they spend much of their time researching various topics related to the Civil War. In 2005, Curtis and his grandson Patrick walked down the Shenandoah Valley, traveling over 170 miles in twelve days. medieval kings have such odd nicknames, you'll enjoy a trip around the world of weird facts with this fascinating book. From weird food to odd funeral customs, from explorers who got lost to misleading translations, the book contains hundreds of intriguing trivia facts. Maybe you want to impress your friends with a wealth of trivia - or maybe you're just fascinated by strange customs and odd traditions! This isn't just a round-up of odd facts - it's a treasury of enjoyable stories, some with a humorous turn or a twist in the tale. You'll be disgusted by some of the weird foods covered in the book - amused by Mark Thatcher, lost in the Sahara - captivated by the attempt to conquer the North Pole by balloon - and amazed by the way some Filipinos take their dead relatives out for a walk. We also introduce you to Columbus, the biggest failure ever, and the wonderfully named Ivailo the Cabbage, King of Bulgaria. You may not be able to get a degree in geography or history with these fun facts - degree courses would be a lot more fun if you could! But this book will take you on a trip around the world and through the centuries that is enthralling and never, ever dull.

Mar 15 2021 Feed your child's thirst for knowledge and give them the gift of lifelong learning - all wrapped up in FUN! Is "Why?" one of your child's favorite words? Have you ever been stumped for an answer when they ask you why birds don't fall out of the sky or how insects can crawl up walls? Children are experts at asking us the trickiest of questions -- and there's a good reason for that. They have an innate desire to learn about the world around them. Their brains are growing and developing, and every new nugget of information helps them along that journey. The human brain thirsts for logic, patterns, and facts, and when children are young, they're slurping up all that information to develop their understanding of the world. And that's why kids love -- and remember -- the facts we don't even think to wonder about. There's nothing more delicious to a child than a strange fact about the animal world or a new word their friends don't know. In fact, once children are out of the endless "Why?" stage of toddlerhood, most parents are graced with a rush of, "Did you know...?" statements. If there's one thing kids love a

2021 If you have a child, you probably already know some facts about ants, but did you know that these little creatures have amazing characteristics? You can surprise them by explaining to them that ants are capable of colonizing almost every continent on the earth. Here are some fun facts about ants to keep your child interested in learning more about them. These amazing insects have been around for centuries and have been known to inhabit every household. Bullet ants are especially deadly and can kill a healthy ant. They lack ears, and their queens are slightly larger than their workers. Despite their small size, they use vibrations to hear and find food. They live in the Amazon River and Nicaragua. This means that ants can cause trouble if you scream at them. And they are quite strong, as they are quite hardy. If you're looking for some fun facts about ants, then read on. Thousands of different species of ants live around the world. The smallest are called Bulldog ants, and they're reddish brown. Fire ants are very large and can have up to 250,000 workers. They're also called "24-hour ants." Insects with powerful jaws live in mounds. They're not as common as we might think, but the fact that they're able to kill so many people makes them a great educational tool.
